Historical Sketch

In the three volume set of books entitled 'Louisiana,' edited by Dr. Alcee Fortier, is found this statement regarding Mansfield Female College:

"This well known college for women was founded soon after the middle of the last century, at Mansfield, DeSoto Parish, La. It is under the control of the Methodist denomination, and the men most active in its establishment were its first president, Rev. H. C. Thweatt, a graduate of the University of Virginia, and the Rev. William E. Doty. The citizens of Mansfield and the region adjacent contributed some $30,000 to the enterprise. It was incorporated on March 9, 1855, by Jacob W. Wemple, Henry Moss, William Crosby, William H. Terrell, Benjamin Person, George C. Burns and others, under the name of "The President and Trustees of Mansfield Female College" and was placed under the direction of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The legislature in 1855 appropriated $5,000 to the college to complete its buildings which were finished the following year. The college is located on the highest ground in the state, on the dividing ridge between Red River and the Sabine, 40 miles south of Shreveport, and the site is pleasant and sanitary."

From this statement we may see something of the early interest of both the Church and the State in the education of the young women of Louisiana.

Those who have served as president of Mansfield Female College are as follows: Rev. H. C. Thweatt, Dr. Charles B. Stuart, Rev. Thomas Armstrong, J. Lane Borden, Rev. F. M. Grace, Dr. A. D. McVoy, T. S. Sligh, Prof. O. S. Dean, Geo. L. Harrell, Dr. W. L. Weber, Prof. A. B. Peters, Prof. R. E. Bobbitt, Prof. W. M. Bratton, and Rev. D. B. Raulins.

With the exception of one year, beside the two years the institution was closed during the Civil War, the College has graduated a class each year.

THE JUNIOR COLLEGE

The position of the Junior College is growing more secure in the educational world. It has practically all the advantages which are found in the Senior College and many advantages not found in the larger institutions of learning. It has charge of the pupil during the last years of her high school life and during the first two years of her college life. These are critical years in the formation of correct mental and moral habits and attitudes. She is not thrown suddenly into the large field of university life where adjustments are hard to make.

The student has the close supervision of teachers in small classes and as a result the percentage of failures is small. A student belongs to the upper classes in a junior college where she would belong to the lower classes in the senior college. This fact gives her class pride and a position of importance in the college life to which she naturally responds.

Many students are not financially able to complete the senior college course without interruption. Students who specialize in pedagogical subjects in Mansfield College receive a Life Certificate to teach in the elementary schools of this state. Many of our girls teach a few years and earn money with which they continue their education in senior college.

THE CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

The patrons of a church institution have a right to expect at least two things of their school: academic training on a par with that of the state institutions, and a character and religious training for which the state cannot provide.

The Christian College has played a conspicuous part in the educational program of the country. It has been free to make and select its policies and has been the forerunner of almost all the modern methods. Over sixty (60) per cent of the men who laid the foundations of this country were college graduates, and in those days there were no colleges other than the Church Schools, therefore the Christian College is entitled to full credit for the part it took in training these great men.

Those who believe that the Bible has a place in the moral training of the youth of today certainly will have to grant that the Christian College has a great advantage. Mansfield Female College is owned and controlled by the Methodist Church. The Bible is read and discussed in the chapel exercises. The pupils in the school are required to take courses in Bible study. This work is non-sectarian and is appreciated by pupils of all denominations.

MANSFIELD COLLEGE PLANT

The buildings and campus are convenient and attractive for student home life. The campus consists of nine acres and has an abundance of beautiful trees and flowers in their season. On the campus there are tennis courts and a large swimming pool. The buildings are well arranged. The rooms are large and well ventilated. There are four bathrooms on each floor and hot and cold water may be had at all times. The buildings are well screened and are lighted by electricity and heated by gas.

The year of 1926 saw completed a splendid dining hall and a very beautiful auditorium. The auditorium is said to be one of the most attractive in the entire state.

HOME LIFE

All the teachers and the president and his family take their meals in the large dining hall together with the students. Social training and pleasant relationship are attained there which are valuable. All the teachers room in the dormitories and are at all times willing to counsel or advise pupils.

The dining room service is not to be excelled in any school. The girls not only do not complain but are highly appreciative of the wholesome and dainty meals served them.

HEALTH

The health of the students is looked after by a regular nurse. Every attention is given to the prevention of illness. Pupils who are indisposed report at once to her and are well taken care of. The location of the college being so healthful and the sanitary arrangements so thorough there is practically no sickness.

GOVERNMENT

The Student Council, the organization of the girls of college grade, has chief control of the conduct of the girls in the dormitory. With the aid of the faculty counsel it is believed that such an arrangement materially advances the education of our young women who must share increasingly in public affairs.

Pupils committed to our care are regarded as a sacred trust. We presume that a girl comes to study and apply herself wholeheartedly and, therefore, make regulations for her best advantage. The girl who has a stubborn and contentious spirit or who has a bad influence in the school will be asked to withdraw from college even though she may not commit an outstanding act of misconduct. The girls who catch the true spirit of Mansfield College become women of poise and culture and are just a little different because of the refining influences they receive at Mansfield.

DRESS

No uniform requirement in dress is made, but parents are requested not to furnish elaborate and expensive dresses for their daughters.

For school use and the occasional social affairs the student should be provided with such dresses as would be appropriate for their age at home.

Simple white dresses must be worn by all students at Commencement. Graduates in the college course wear the grey cap and gown.

For gymnasium use black bloomers, white blouse, and gymnasium shoes are required.

Whatever is necessary in the way of raincoats, umbrellas, and rubbers will be insisted upon.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

The College has two Literary Societies, the L'Allegro and the Athenian.

The societies are well organized, have regular programs, hold inter-society contests, and take a very active part in all the important activities of the College. We consider these societies very valuable to every participant. College honor and loyalty are most sacred in the eyes of those who are the most active society workers.

COLLEGE PUBLICATIONS

The College publications are the year book, Ladye Lou, and the monthly school paper, The Collegian.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

The Christian way of life is given definite and positive emphasis in Mansfield College. The chief aim is character and service with the insistence that thorough and reliable scholarship is necessary to such service.

Practically all of the students belong to some branch of the church. Each Sunday they attend the church of their membership or choice in both Sunday School and preaching service. Numbers also attend the young people's organizations such as Epworth League and B. Y. P. U.

The Y. W. C. A. is the student's religious organization of the College. They meet in their own chapel each morning for a short religious service and conduct the vesper prayers in the dining room each evening. They also conduct chapel at regular and appointed times. All the College girls belong and most of them will lead in the devotional exercises. The Y. W. C. A. is the most powerful religious influence in the College.

PRIZES

CENTENARY COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP. Centenary College of Louisiana offers a tuition scholarship to the graduate selected by the faculty.

WOMAN'S DEPARTMENTAL CLUB LOVING CUP. The Woman's Departmental Club of Mansfield offers a loving cup for the literary society winning the highest number of points in the annual Inter-Society Contest.

ACHIEVEMENT TROPHY. For the best all round student and college citizen the Bank of Commerce and Trust Co., Mansfield, offers a prize.

PIANO TROPHY. Mr. E. P. Griffin, Jeweler, Mansfield, offers a prize for the best student in the Piano Department.

EXPRESSION TROPHY. For the best student in the Department of Expression the Bank of Commerce and Trust Co., Mansfield, provides a prize.

COURSES OFFERED

In Mansfield College the following courses are given in the literary department: Grammar school grade work, high school or academy work, amounting to sixteen and one-half units, two years of college work giving sixty-four (64) semester hours of collegiate work. Pupils who take two years in a foreign language receive the A.A. (Associate in Arts) diploma. Those who major in pedagogical subjects receive the L. I. (Licentiate Instructor) diploma.

In the Fine Arts department courses are given in piano, violin, voice, pipe organ, expression, and the theoretical subjects pertaining to music. Diplomas are granted to students who complete any of these courses.

MODEL SCHOOL COURSE

The work in this course is parallel to the work done in the state grammar school for the first seven grades. The pupils are taught by expert teachers in a thorough manner. This work is given in this college to afford a school for observation and practice teaching for the college students who are majoring in pedagogical subjects. Only a limited number are accepted into the classes. The literary society for the Model School is the Hustlers.

HIGH SCHOOL OR ACADEMY COURSE

The courses offered in this department are practically the same as those offered in the state high schools. The student has the advantage of being taught in many of these subjects by the instructors who teach in the college department. She also has the opportunity of taking music or expression from the teachers of the fine arts department of the college. She has the refining influences of association with the college faculty and students and feels that she is a part of the College. A diploma is given when the student completes this course.

ADMISSION

A student is admitted to any grade in the model or high school if she has completed the preceding grade in this or any state school of the first class. A student is admitted to the Junior College if she has completed fifteen (15) accredited high school units. Four of these units must be English, two and one-half Mathematics ($1\frac{1}{2}$ Algebra and 1 Plane Geometry), two History, two Science, and the remaining units may be optional.

A student may enter the College on condition and receive credit for work done therein, if she presents fourteen and one-half high school units, provided she is seventeen years of age and will make up the required admission units before beginning her senior year.

GRADES AND CREDITS

A student who makes a passing grade in any high school subject pursued for one semester of four and one-half months will receive a credit of one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) unit. If the subject is pursued for one year with a passing grade she will receive a credit of one (1) unit. A student who makes a passing grade in any college subject for one semester will receive a credit of three (3) semester hours. For a full year she receives six (6) semester hours of credit if a passing grade is made. Two (2) hours of laboratory work count as one (1) hour of credit.

Grade marks are recorded as follows: A plus, 95-100; A, 95; A minus, 90-95; B plus, 85-90; B, 85; B minus, 80-85; C plus, 75-80; C, 75; passing; X, 65-74, conditioned; F, below 65, failure. A, B, C, are considered passing grades, X signifies a condition to be removed by a subsequent examination; if not removed during the next semester of attendance, it shall be counted as a failure. F signifies failure, and the subject must be taken over in class.

To remain in college a student must be passing 9 hours of regular work. Failure to do so renders the student subject to probation, during which time she must regain her scholarship standing.

QUALITY POINTS

Quality points may be earned in the following manner: A credit of three semester hours in a course completed with a grade of A is equivalent to 4 points; with a grade of A minus to 3 points; with a grade of B to 2 points; with a grade of B minus to 1 point. F subtracts 1 point.

GRADUATION

Sixty-four semester hours and 20 honor points, 6 of which shall be in a student's major subject, are necessary for graduation from the Junior College. Those required are as follows: Twelve (12) in English, six (6) mathematics, six (6) history, ten (10) science, six (6) psychology, making a total of forty (40) semester hours. The remaining twenty-four (24) hours may be optional. For the A.A. diploma the student must take twelve (12) hours in a foreign language. For the L.I. diploma she must take eighteen (18) hours in pedagogical subjects. A student must do one year—30 hours—of resident work to receive diploma.

Courses of Instruction

The number "1" placed after the subject named in the high school course indicates that the subject is valued at one (1) high school unit. A study pursued for one year with five (5) 45 minute recitations per week earns this credit.

The value of the college courses is given in "hours." A study pursued for one semester with three (3) hours of recitation per week earns a credit of three semester hours. A regular college subject pursued for one year earns a credit of six semester hours.

All students unless excused by a physician must take one hour per week of gymnasium work. This hour will be recorded as a credit.

All students must attend Literary Society meetings.

The courses are so arranged that any regularly classified student may take one (1) extra, either music or expression. Pupils who make an average of B+ in their literary studies may take two extras if permission is granted by the faculty.

BIBLE

COLLEGE COURSES

- V.—Life of Christ..... 2 hours
 Comparative study of the Gospels.
 Text: The Gospels and Burton & Matthew's Life of Christ.
- VI.—Teacher Training Subjects..... 2 hours
 Text: Standard texts of the general units with collateral readings.

EDUCATION

COLLEGE COURSES

- V.a—General Psychology..... 3 hours
 A study of the main facts of the sense organs and nervous system as a basis for understanding human behavior and mental processes.
 Offered first semester. Required of all students.
- b—General Psychology 3 hours
 A continuation of the study of General Psychology V.a.
 Offered second semester. Required of A.A. students.
 Prerequisite: V.a.
- c—Introduction to Teaching..... 3 hours
 A broad preliminary survey of education—its social significance, what the process of education consists of, the materials with which it works, the machinery by which it is conducted. A study, also, of the personal qualifications of successful teachers. This course is designed to guide the prospective teacher in selecting the field in which she wishes to work, to provide her with a technical vocabulary, and to give her an idea of the importance of the work of the teacher. Offered second semester.
 Textbook, readings, reports, lectures.
- VI.a—Special Methods..... 6 hours
 This course includes a study of current methods in teaching the various elementary school subjects, based upon the psychological principles governing these methods. The teaching of Reading, Spelling, Arithmetic, Geography and Language will receive special attention, but some time will be devoted to the other subjects. As each subject is studied, students will observe the work of experienced teachers in both the Model School and the public school. Students who do not show satisfactory signs of developing teaching ability will be dropped from the group.

Text books, readings, reports and lectures.

Prerequisite: Education V.a-c.

b—Educational Psychology..... 3 hours

A course involving an application of general psychology to the field of Education. A thorough study of motivation and the psychology of learning in connection with classroom procedure will be stressed. Some time will be given to experiments bearing upon the problems raised in the course.

Text book, readings, lectures.

Prerequisite: Education V.a-c.

c—Student Teaching 3 hours

Those working for the L.I. Certificate must take this course. The teaching will be done in a model school under the supervision of an experienced grade teacher. This covers a period of eighteen weeks in which the student prepares lesson plans, attends special conferences with the Education Instructor and teaches a class five times each week.

Prerequisite: Senior standing.

d—Child Psychology..... 3 hours

A systematic study of the physical and mental development of the child from infancy through the adolescent period. This gives a basis for the intelligent management of the child, for adjustment of school tasks and activities to his interests and ability as well as for the better supervision of his learning.

Text book, readings, reports, lecture.

Prerequisite: Education V.a-c.

(Elective, offered first semester).

ENGLISH

COLLEGE COURSES

V.a—Junior English..... 6 hours

First Term—Composition and Rhetoric, with Grammar. Maxwell's Advanced English Grammar. An original essay and original short story. A Century of English Essays (Dutton, Pub.) and Representative Short Stories (Macmillan, Pub.) used as a basis for the study of style.

Second Term—A careful study of Much Ado About Nothing, Hamlet, Henry V. Collateral reading on life and works of Shakespeare. Lectures on critical studies of Shakespeare.

b—Journalism 3 hours

This course is designed for students who write with some ease and correctness and wish further training in composition. The class serves as a work-shop for "The Collegian," and the "Collegian" staff is elected from its membership. Permission of the instructor is required for admission.

(Elective. Two periods a week for two terms).

Text: Bleyer: Newspaper Writing and Editing.

(Not offered 1928-1929).

VI. a—Senior English..... English Literature 6 hours

First Term—The Development of the Novel. A survey of the history and technique of the novel. Class work includes Vicar of Wakefield, Adam Bede, and Bent Twig, or others of similar rank, representing the novel's development. Collateral readings: four standard novels, Dombey and Son required as one; two orations by famous orators.

Second Term—Victorian Poetry, as represented by Tennyson and Browning. Somewhat rapid introduction to modern poetry, with Modern British Poetry (edited by Untermeyer) used for both collateral and class work. Collateral readings: two present-day novels, selected with teacher; two contemporary poems; Francis Thompson's Hound of Heaven.

b—Modern Drama 3 hours

Recent and contemporary plays bearing on concrete questions of the day are read and their problems discussed.

(Elective, offered first semester).

Text: Hubbell and Beaty, An Introduction to Drama.

FRENCH COLLEGE COURSES

V.—Elements of French Grammar..... 6 hours

Special attention to training in pronunciation. Reading of French short stories.

Text: The New Fraser and Squair's Complete French Grammar.

- VI.—Advanced French..... 6 hours

 Offered second semester.
 Text: Horace, Shorey.

MATHEMATICS

COLLEGE COURSES

V.a—College Algebra..... 3 hours

A thorough review of fundamental principles of High School Algebra, with attention to variations, variables and limits, infinite series, partial fractions, proportion, permutations and combinations, probabilities, determinants, theory of equations, complex numbers and logarithms. Offered first semester.

Prerequisite: $1\frac{1}{2}$ or 2 Units of High School Algebra.

Text: Hart's College Algebra.

b—Solid Geometry 3 hours

The usual theorems and constructions, including the relations of planes and lines in space, the properties and measurements of polyhedrons, cylinders, cones and the sphere. Three books with solution of numerous exercises.

Offered second semester. Open to Juniors and Seniors.

Text: Wentworth-Smith, Solid Geometry.

VI.a—Plane Trigonometry 3 hours

The use of tables of the natural trigonometric functions and of logarithmic functions in the solutions and applications of the right and oblique triangles. Emphasis given to the derivation of formulas and the proof of identities, inverse functions and graphs of functions.

Offered first semester.

Open to Juniors and Seniors.

Text: Wentworth-Smith, Plane Trigonometry.

b—Plane Analytical Geometry..... 3 hours

A development of the notations of co-ordinates, graphical representation of points and curves in a plane, determination of the properties and relations of plane curves by a study of their equations and graphs. The straight line and conic sections are fully investigated. General equations of the second degree and higher plane curves.

Offered second semester. Open to Seniors only.

Prerequisite: Math, V-a and Math. VI-a.

Text: Wilson and Tracy, Plane Analytical Geometry.

SCIENCE

COLLEGE COURSES

V.—Biology10 hours

1—General Zoology—A study of animal life in general. Students drilled in methods of thoroughness in dissection and interpretation of structure. Three lectures and four laboratory hours per week for 24 weeks. Text: Hegner's College Zoology, Hyman's Laboratory Manual.

2—General Botany—A general introduction to Botany including important structures and classifications of plants. Three lectures and four laboratory hours per week for 12 weeks.

Text: Densmore's General Botany, Densmore's Laboratory Guide for General Botany.

VI.—General Chemistry10 hours

A detailed study of laws of Chemistry and the raw metals. In the spring, elementary qualitative analysis illustrates the chemistry of metals. One year of college mathematics prerequisite or parallel. Three lectures and four laboratory hours per week.

Text: Holmes' General Chemistry.

School of Fine Arts

The Mansfield College School of Fine Arts has long been the object of high praise and general patronage of the educated people both in and out of Mansfield. In order to maintain its high standards, the department offers to its students supplementary work in English, History, Psychology and Modern Languages. "The Mere Musician" as it were, the talented player or singer, who lacks general education is at a disadvantage now and will be at a greater disadvantage tomorrow.

The best musical educators are agreed that general mental discipline should not precede but continuously accompany study in music and expression. Fine arts schools are seeking everywhere what we are using, affiliation with literary work. Under our system study and practice in music and expression are not allowed to suffer or be crowded out, but the student is shown how she may become both a cultured woman and a thorough musician or reader.

COURSES OF STUDY

The Mansfield College School of Fine Arts offers courses in pianoforte, voice, violin, organ, theory, ear training, sight-singing, harmony, history of music, ensemble, orchestra, glee club and expression.

Individual instruction is given in instruments, voice, and expression, while class instruction is given in the theoretical branches.

Students who do not wish to follow any specified course may have private lessons in any department of the Fine Arts School.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The aim of the Department of Music is to teach music aesthetically as an element of a liberal education, to teach it technically and scientifically—

1. For students who desire to specialize in music for professional ends.

2. For academic students who wish to study music as an element of culture.

3. For special students who wish to become proficient in one or more branches of art.

Courses of instruction are arranged especially to meet an ever increasing demand for more thorough and broader musical training. Special attention is given to the formation of a correct technique, to precision, and to intelligence in interpretation.

GRADUATION

Diplomas in music will be granted to students who have done one year of resident work and have completed the required course prescribed for any instrument and pass the work in History, Harmony, and Theory. Each candidate for graduation must give a public recital. She must have completed the high school course or its equivalent and one year of French or German and one year of College English.

PRACTICE

Pianos are provided for practice and the students are under the supervision of practice monitors.

PIANO

The student is offered a broad scope in the Department of Piano. Special courses are provided for those in every stage of advancement, from beginners to advanced students who wish to acquire a broad and artistic repertoire.

In consideration of the broad range of piano literature, it is very difficult and impractical to apply a certain course, however an outline of standard works is designated to give approximate information.

Selections from the following list or other standard material of equal difficulty may be chosen at the discretion of the teacher.

COURSE I. Kindergarten Studies; Mathilde Bilbro; The Very First Lessons at the Piano, Crosby-Adams; Twenty-five Easy Studies, Schytte, Streabbog, Op. 63; Kohler, Op. 157; Loeschorn, Op. 65, Bk. 1; Meyer, First Etude Album.

Easy Sonatas by Clementi, Lichner, Gurlitt, Reinecke, Schumann, Bach-Faelton.

Compositions of equal difficulty by standard composers.

Major scales, slow tempo. Rhythmic forms.

*Recital — { 20 half-hour recitals
12 hrs. practice*

COURSE II. Kohler, Short School of Velocity; Burgmuller-Krentalin, Tone and Rhythm, Bk. 1; Czerny-Krentzlin, Bk. II; Meyer, Second Etude Album; Thumer, Velocity and Finger Equality, Bk. I; Lynes-Independence, Sixteen Melodious Studies; Wolff, Der Klein Pischna.

Sonatinas by Clementi, Reinecke, Kuhlau and Loeschorn.

Compositions of equal difficulty by standard composers.

COURSE IV. Le Couppay, Twenty-five Studies, Op. 20 ("Agility"); Duvernoy, School of Mechanism; Berens, Velocity Studies, Bk. I; Heller, Op. 46; Bertini (Rogers), Legato and Staccato, Bk. II.

Easiest sonatas by Haydn, Mozart, Bach—arrangements by Carroll, Bulow Heinze.

Compositions of equal difficulty by standard composers.

Major and minor scales (Harmonic and melodic). Major and Minor arpeggi. Rhythmic forms.

COURSE V. Czerny—Opus 299 and Opus 821. (Selections).

Cramer Etudes (Selections).

Bach—Little Preludes and Fugues. Two Part Inventions.

Sonatas by Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven.

Compositions by Mendelssohn, Schumann, Schubert, Grieg, and others.

All major and minor scales (Harmonic and Melodic).

All major and minor arpeggi in fundamental position and inversion in parallel motion. Four notes at M.M.80.

COURSE VI. Czerny, Opus 740 (Selections).

Cramer Etudes.

Clementi, Gradus ad Parnassum (Selections).

Bach—Three Part Inventions. The Well Tempered Clavicord (Selections). French Suites (Selections).

Sonatas by Haydn, Mozart, Bethoven.

Compositions by Chopin, Schumann, Brahms, Liszt, Debussy, and others.

All major and minor scales in thirds, sixths, and tenths, in parallel and contrary motion. Four notes at M.M.120.

All major and minor, diminished, and dominant seventh arpeggi in parallel and contrary motion in fundamental position and inversions. Four notes at M.M.120.

ORGAN

Students beginning the study of the organ must possess sufficient knowledge of piano music to enable them to read simple compositions at first sight.

A thorough course of study is given in the mastery of the organ and preparation is made for church and recital work. Methods are adapted to the individual need of the student.

The study of improvisation, modulation, transposition and other elements in the equipment of a well trained organist is given special attention. Students are required to take courses in theory, harmony, and music history and to do outside reading on acoustics, the history and construction of the organ, and allied subjects.

COURSE I. Study of organ registers.

Stainer, The Rudiments of the Organ in manual and pedal studies. James H. Rogers, Graded Material for Organ, Bk. I. George E. Whiting, The Beginners Pipe Organ Book. Clemmens, Pedal Technic, Bk. I.

Pedal scales and arpeggi.

Easy operations by Merker, Fischer, Guilmant, Dubois, and others.

COURSE II. Clemmens, Pedal Studies, Bk. II.

Rheinberger Trios.

Bach, Little Preludes and Fugues.

Easier Sonatas by Mendelssohn, Merkel, Guilmant and Rogers.

Compositions by Dubois, Saint-Saens, Batiste, Lemmens, and others.

COURSE III. Dudley Buck, Pedal Studies.

Larger works of Bach, Handel, Medelssohn, Widor,

Rheinberger, Guilmant, Vierne, Reger, Franck, and others.
Keyboard work in modulation and improvisation.

VIOLIN

COURSE I. This course embraces: Training for the correct position in holding the violin bow; cultivation of technic for fingers and bow; exercises in intonation, such as scales, etudes and pieces in the first position. Kelley, Book I; Sevcik, Technic Part I, Kayser. Thirty-six Progressive studies; Wohlfahrt, Sixty Studies, Book I.

COURSE II. The positions and the change of positions. Scales and exercises for shifting in seven positions. Laoureux, Book II; Kayser, Book II; Wohlfahrt, Book II. Pieces in positions for the development of style and interpretation.

COURSE III. Exercises for technic in general and for the cultivation of tone. Sevcik, Book II and III; Mazas Etudes Op. 36; Sevcik, Double Stops. Training in sight reading and ensemble playing.

COURSE IV. Cultivation of the higher technic of the fingers and bow. Hans Sitt Scales, Casorti, The Technics of Bowing for the Violin; Kreutzer, Studies; Fiorillo, Caprices; Schradieck, The School of Violin Technics. Concertos by Rode, De Beriot, Viotti, Mardini, Seitz.

VOICE DEPARTMENT

COURSE I. First principles of tone production and voice liberation, principles of correct breathing, thorough explanation of the vocal anatomy, study of vowel values, and consideration of the articulation of consonants, position in singing, original vocalises with all the vowels bearing in mind the following: sustained singing (attack, legato, portamento), scales, repeated notes, time, rhythm, arpeggi. Simple songs.

COURSE II. Vocalises (selected) to cover: sustained singing (canto, messa di voce), rhythm, phrasing, studies in agility, style and interpretation, chromatic scales, trills, turns, mordents, expression in diction. Intermediate songs.

COURSE III. Advanced technical studies, phrasing, styles of technique (canto, recitative, dramatic). Songs selected from classical song literature.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Completion of the senior course in either piano, voice, violin, or pipe organ.

The ability to present in recital from memory not less than six advanced compositions.

The ability to read at first sight a composition of medium difficulty.

One number of moderate difficulty must be prepared without assistance from the teacher or anyone else.

Each candidate for graduation must have appeared in recital not less than three times her junior year and three times her senior year.

Before a student is admitted to candidacy for graduation she must play before the entire music faculty and receive the favorable vote of this faculty.

Completion of this work together with the full theoretical requirements and the literary requirements as stated under "GRADUATION" entitle the student, after giving a public recital, to a diploma.

GLEE CLUB

The Mansfield College Glee Club is given an important place among the school activities. This organization has made an enviable reputation throughout the state. It has a repertoire of both secular and sacred music.

ORCHESTRA

The Mansfield College Orchestra is composed of those who are interested in wind and string instruments. They contribute very materially by playing for various school affairs.

RECITALS

Public recitals are given frequently throughout the year. These afford pupils of all grades the advantage of performing before others. This is a very important part of an education helping the pupil to gain self mastery and poise.

THEORETICAL STUDIES

Nothing is more necessary in the education of a musician than a thorough knowledge of the laws governing the construction of music. Thus an acquaintance with theory and harmony is indispensable, they constitute the grammar and rhetoric of music. A pupil may be taught to play difficult compositions without this knowledge but such playing is mechanical, lacking mature understanding and interpretation.

To learn to listen to music and think in tones and tonal combinations is the ultimate aim of all musical training. In the theory class special instruction is given in the rudiments of music and the laying of a solid foundation for the more advanced courses.

With theory as a prerequisite the harmony courses give the pupil a practical working knowledge of chords enabling her to harmonize, distinguish chords by sight and sound, modulate and do original work.

Ear training and sight singing are given special stress as they are fundamentally essential for the cultured woman of today as well as a basis for the thorough musician.

The history course provides a background for all music study, giving a greater appreciation and understanding of the intellectual and emotional content of the music studied.

All students are urged to pursue these courses in order to develop and broaden their musical understanding. The above courses must be completed by all candidates for graduation in piano, voice, violin, and pipe organ.

DESCRIPTION OF THEORETICAL STUDIES

THEORY

The work includes a thorough knowledge of notation, symbols, scales, keys, intervals, chords, terms, elements of form. Two hours per week each semester. Gibbon's Theory.

HARMONY

COURSE I. Triads and their inversions, cadences, chord connections in four part harmony in close and dispersed positions; dominant seventh chords, their inversions and resolutions. Stress is placed upon the harmonization of melodies, figured and unfigured basses. Prerequisite: Theory. Two hours per week each semester. Chadwick's Harmony.

COURSE II. Secondary chords; chords of ninth, modulations, chromatically altered chords, augmented chords, suspensions, passing and changing notes and organ point. Prerequisite: Course I. Two hours per week for each semester. Chadwick's Harmony.

EAR TRAINING AND SIGHT READING

The aim of this course is to teach the pupil to think in tones, to so train the ear that one may learn to sing, name, write, and play what is heard, and to recognize and appreciate not only melodic effects of music but the harmonic and rhythmic also. Sight singing accompanies the work throughout the year, beginning with simple intervals and phrases the work progresses by easy stages until more difficult passages can be read fluently. Recognition of diatonic intervals of the major and minor scales, solfeggio, exercises in simple notation and rhythms, dictation exercises, simple meters and rhythmic units; melodies major and minor, simple modulations, exercises and songs in one and two parts. Two hours per week.

HISTORY OF MUSIC

This course is a general survey of the evolution of music from earliest times to the end of the nineteenth century with emphasis upon the composers of the classic period, though some time is spent on the contrapuntal, the Italian and the Romantic Schools. Also the history of opera is stressed and a careful study of some of the grand operas is made. Two hours per week each semester. Text: Hamilton's Outline of Music History.

EXPRESSION DEPARTMENT

This course is designed to improve expression, stimulate a more harmonious action of the mind, a more natural and responsive use of voice and body; to secure insight into fundamentals as distinguished from accidentals of delivery, and practice such exercises as will develop the elementals and bring them into unity and harmony; to study the best literature; to stimulate and train the imaginative and creative powers of man by the study of great art of all kinds; and to make the listener hear, understand, think, and feel.

Public recitals will be given during the year, and each student will be encouraged to contribute her share of talent.

The course of study will be altered to meet the needs of individual students and no certain length of time can be set for its completion, since this varies with the ability and application of the student.

THE DELTA PSI OMEGA

DRAMATIC FRATERNITY

Delta Psi Omega is one of the largest of the national honorary dramatic fraternities, having forty-nine chapters in the colleges of the United States. As a member of the Association of Speech Arts Fraternities of America, membership in Delta Psi Omega is both an honor and a professional asset.

Mansfield College has been honored in being selected as a charter member of the Delta Psi Omega, moreover it is the only school in the state represented in the organization.

This honorary fraternity does not take the place of the dramatic clubs in the college but assists the director by encouraging the students to be prompt at rehearsals, to memorize their lines, to take any part assigned to them and to do all in their power to make their work more artistic.

COURSES OF STUDY

COURSE I. Children's Class. The aim of this class is to develop the spontaneity and individuality of the child by encouraging and directing the outflow of his thoughts and emotions in the presentation of selected readings, fairy tales, dramatized stories, and original stories. Children's Dramatics in the form of club work.

COURSE II. Qualities of voice, problem reading, harmonic training, normal adjustments, story telling. The development of imagination and dramatic instinct through the study of modern fairy tales, nature stories, legendary and historical stories. Platform readings, interpretations of monologues, short stories and lyrics, and vocal expression.

Text: Curry, Little classics for Oral English.

COURSE III. Voice training; the study of right tone production and improvement of speech. Pantomimic training; dramatic thinking. The study of one-act plays for the purpose of platform interpretation, conversation and criticism; study of epic and dramatic poetry; narrative and descriptive studies for vocal interpretation; vocal expression.

Text: Curry, Lessons in Vocal Expression.

COURSE IV. Advanced voice training, using technical and psychic methods; elliptic pantomime; vocal interpretation of literature, Shakespeare, Browning and the Bible; advanced platform art and extemporaneous speaking. Original work in arranging material for readings. General resume of principles and methods. Arranging and rendering an artistic graduation recital. Study of the relation of vocal expression to vocal training and the training of the body.

Text: Curry, Foundations of Expression.

DRAMATIC ART

The aim of this course is to bring to the student's mind the true value of dramatics, to give attention to the best things in literature, to participate in a cultural drama, and to release personality in artistic spontaneity. This work is principally done through the Thespian club, which club is composed of expression students and others who show marked talent along this line.

COURSE I. Stage technique and the production of one-act plays; principles of dramatic thinking and introduction to life study.

COURSE II. Special attention to the modern presentation of a play. Stage craft taught through the study of miniature models showing historical development of the stage, costumes, lighting and settings for plays. Each senior must select cast, and direct a one-act play for a public performance before she will be recommended for graduation.

GRADUATION

A diploma in expression is given to students who have done one year resident work and have met the following requirements: completion of the course as outlined under Expression, Dramatic Art, and Physical Training, and 18 hours of college work, 6 of which must be English, 3 Modern Drama, and 6 Psychology, remaining hours optional.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The intentions of man should be to value life and take pleasure in it, therefore the elements of training and recreation should be chief among the pursuits of the healthy individual. All students are expected to take this work unless a certificate from an examining physician is presented showing that such exercise would be detrimental to the health of the student. Each student will be given a physical examination and an effort will be made to correct faults (such as poor posture) by giving such exercises and instruction as will insure strength and health of body, poise correct carriage, and good health.

This course will include gymnastics, games, marching, simple apparatus work, folk dancing, rhythmical balance movements and outdoor sports. Students are graded upon the basis of attendance, effort and knowledge of work given. One hour per week each semester.

POST GRADUATE WORK

In addition to the prescribed courses in each department in the Fine Arts School, post graduate work is offered.

Financial Regulations

Parents or guardians who enter pupils in Mansfield College are understood to accept all the regulations and terms set forth in this catalogue.

It is understood that the pupil is entered for the year or the remainder of the year if she enters late.

The total cost of board, tuition and fees, in the literary department is $377.00 per year. This does not include books or laundry.

One-half of the total cost must be paid when the pupil enters school. The rates quoted below are for the semester or half year. If a pupil must leave school on account of sickness a refund will be made of board and tuition for the time lost. No refund will be granted for the last month of the semester for any reason.

Please notice that these charges are to be paid CASH when the pupil enters. Do not ask the College to credit you. If you cannot pay the full charges on entrance you must sign a note to pay on agreed date and pay interest for this privilege. The President has the right to refuse credit to any or all persons.

No transcript of credits will be given until all bills are satisfactorily met.

Children of ministers active in the ministry receive free literary tuition.

SPECIAL CHARGES. Small rooms are furnished with a 40 watt lamp and large rooms are furnished with a 60 watt lamp. Pupils and teachers who wish extra lamps must secure permission from the president and pay 50 cents per month for each extra light. Teachers who wish extra electrical equipment must secure permission for their use and pay 50 cents extra per month for each piece of equipment.

Pupil and teachers who wish to remain at the College during the Christmas holidays must make arrangements in advance and pay $1.00 per day for meals.

Teachers or students bringing guests to meals shall pay for same at the rate of 35 cents per meal except when other arrangements have been made with the President.

Application for room reservation is to be accompanied by a deposit of $5, the amount to be credited on the first semester's expenses. Should the application be withdrawn by August 25 deposit will be refunded.

Regulations

Bring transcript of credits from your school.

Each young lady will be required to furnish for her own use: books, stationery, napkins, and napkin ring, matches, one pair of sheets, one pillow and a pair of pillow cases, one pair of blankets, one bed spread, toilet articles, towels, one knife, fork, spoon and drinking glass for her room.

Each pupil must also be provided with an academic dictionary and a Bible.

All students should have been vaccinated within the past five years.

Students are held responsible for the furniture in the rooms. In case of breakage, the article must be replaced.

The College is not responsible for valuables unless deposited in the office.

All students and teachers attend Church and Sunday School.

Occupants of each room are required to keep their own room in order.

Pupils are not allowed to spend the night in town at any time.

When girls are coming to the college or returning to the college after a visit home, they must come directly to the college and not visit in town.

Regular times are arranged for girls to go home.

Permits to go home or elsewhere must be sent directly to the lady principal in writing or by 'phone.

Quiet hour is observed at the college from 1:00 to 3:00 P.M. on Sunday. Please do not visit your daughter or call her on long distance at that time.

Borrowing or lending is not allowed. Each girl must furnish her own clothes or other articles.

Girls are not allowed to have any electrical equipment of any kind in their rooms.

The College is not responsible for accounts made by students. Merchants who sell on credit take their own risk.

Pupils are not allowed to leave school before Commencement.

Pupils who return late after holidays must take examinations in all subjects missed and pay $1.00 for each examination.

After the school closes the President has control of all students until they are on the trains for home. In case a student wishes to visit a friend before returning home, she must have written permission from her parents or guardian to do so.

The faculty reserves the right to reclassify a student upon evidence of inability to continue a given subject satisfactorily.

Students are not allowed to drop or change courses after the first two weeks of the semester except by consent of the faculty.

Students registering late are charged $1.00 fee.

To represent the College in any event or to be elected to student honors the student must be making a satisfactory scholarship and conduct record.

For graduation a minimum of a year's resident work is required, all other conditions having been met.

Students withdrawing after the middle of the semester can claim no refund of fees or tuition. There is no refund in case student is dropped or suspended. Students entering within two weeks of beginning of semester will be charged full amount. No refund is made except in cases of protracted illness.

TO PARENTS

These rules are planned to assist your daughter to get the best results from her work. One of the attractive features of the boarding school is that the pupil is removed from the things which, though pleasant and harmless in themselves, take up time she should use in studying. Please do not ask us to make special concessions for your daughter.

Write her cheerful letters and do not neglect her. She needs home cheerfulness and does not need a blue letter.

There is positively no advantage in frequent visits home. It takes two or three days for the student to get back into the full spirit of her studies.

If your daughter is dissatisfied, please write us a frank letter about it. We are as truly interested in her best welfare at our College as the parent is and we may be able to remove the cause of dissatisfaction.

NOTES TO TEACHERS

All teachers are expected to be present at all chapel services and at each all-school occasion.

Teachers should be governed by the same instructions as are students in the furnishings of their rooms.

Every teacher is expected to be present at each meal and to be hostess at her table.

Every teacher is expected to cooperate loyally and cordially with the President in the promotion of the school program and the best interests of the College.

No teacher will be retained on the faculty who withholds cheerful compliance with all the rules of the College; who is not consistently loyal to every interest; and who is not specifically and thoroughly qualified for the teaching to which she is elected.

Not all definite and specific duties can be known in advance. However, each teacher is expected to share in the regular work of the Home Department and to do her part in chaperoning, in encouraging school activities and in assisting, when called upon, in cooperation with student government.
